JOHN E. BROOKS — CHIEF OF POLICE

OFFICER OF THE MONTH AWARD AND LIFE SAVING AWARD - May 2016

The Sunrise Police Department proudly announces the selection of Officer Kerensky Jenkins as recipient of the Officer of the Month Award and Life-Saving Award for May 2016.

On October 13, 2015, Officer Jenkins was dispatched to a residence after a hysterical caller dialed 9-1-1 advising that her baby was not breathing. Once on scene, Officer Jenkins suppressed his personal emotions and quickly assessed the condition of the infant, ultimately observing her to be unresponsive and not breathing. Reverting to his training, Officer Jenkins began to administer CPR until Sunrise Fire-Rescue arrived and took over medical treatment and transported the infant to the hospital. Thankfully, the infant was revived and is currently in good health.

The infant's mother provided a powerful and comprehensive account of Officer Jenkins heroic measures as they worked in conjunction to administer life-saving medical care. In fact, she referred to Officer Jenkins presence as "an angel sent to help me." Additionally, she is quoted as saying that if it wasn't for Officer Jenkins, "I wouldn't have Madison today"

Officer Jenkins was confronted with one of the most difficult situations one can face. His actions during the early morning of October 13, clearly demonstrate that he is able to quickly assess an extremely demanding situation and immediately initiate a plan of action. There is no doubt that his actions saved the life of a 14-month old infant.

The Sunrise Police Department believes the selfless actions and professionalism displayed by Officer Jenkins should be recognized as recipient of the Officer of the Month Award and Life-Saving Award for May 2016.
