I have a passion for helping people and working with children so my practice will be mainly based on helping children and young adults. I want to make a difference.

SECTION 4 - WHY ME?

17. Please use a separate sheet to tell us something about yourself that would distinguish you from other applicants and why you should be selected for this scholarship.

Section 4- Why Me?

17. Ever since I was a little girl, I always knew there was something different about me. Whenever I saw someone get hurt or was upset, I was the first one to their rescue. I always took care of the people around me, making sure they were always happy and comfortable. Growing up, I've made a lot of friends and come into contact with all kinds of people, each with their own set of struggles. Whether it was someone I was familiar with or not, I ended up talking to them and helping them with whatever problems they were facing. An open ear to listen and a shoulder to cry on is something that comes naturally to me. It has become my dream to help people for a living, offering that ear and shoulder for anyone who needs it. Being a psychologist is more to me than just sitting around gossiping for two hours, it's changing people's lives for the better. This scholarship would not only aid me in my goals, but help hundreds maybe thousands of people to come. I would love to open my own practice someday and be able to offer my services to as many people as I can without them having to worry about the cost. Seeing people happy and healthy makes me happy and know that there is still true good in the world. Having an opportunity to share my passion for healing and love would be a dream come true.
