Historical Displays- Broward County

City	Historical Di	Type of Display	Managed by City	If yes then what Department handles it?	How much is budgeted	if not then who handles it?	Notes
Coral Springs	Yes	Museum of History is in a building at Mullins Park	Yes	Marketing and Communications	Other areas support the overall mission. Approximate 10k to maintain software, purchase anything for the archives. Public works would handle the property. Raised funds through merchandise sells at		Historical advisory committee they do volunteer hrs at the museum, City Historian part-time, historic preservation board just starting certified local govt
Town of Davie	Yes	Old Davie School Historical Museum	No			The Davie School Foundation
Deerfield Beach	Yes	Historical display at the James D. and Alice Butler House	No			Deerfield Beach Historical Society 954-429-0378
Fort Lauderdale	Yes	1- Ft. Lauderdale Historical Society Campus 2- In the Historic Ft. Laud district there are 8 signs that are interactive by scanning a QR code. 3- Archives and Research Center Tricia Logan- 954-828-7101 historic preservation board liaison	No			Ft. Laud Historical Society	Ft. Laud Historical Society organization manages these displays, it is it's own non-profit organization. The City provides funding to operate on city owned property. It usually is $85k annually, but next fiscal year it will be $135k to maintain the buildings, access to the archives, and historic preservation. The signs in the historic district was funded by a State grant.
Hallandale Beach	Yes	Heritage and Historic Sites (2) Curci House and Historic Schoolhouse	Yes	Beaches and Parks			Director for Parks Cathie Schanz 954-457-1409 cschanz@cohb.org ; Budget Dept Director Natasha Mazzie 954-457-1363 and Assist Nickens Remy 954-457-2233. Did not receive a call back.
Hollywood	Yes	There are centennial displays throughout city hall and it will come down 12/31/25. Arts Park / Developer created a permanent wall on history with a fountain and sitting area.	Yes	Communications and Marketing. 10 years ago the City Clerk office printed and framed 30-40 post cards and it was posted this year. 10 years ago the City Marketing Dept posted a display on an aluminum frame	Centennial Event info: $500k for the events and $100k for advertising, $75k event related stuff for centennial year. Marketing secured $67K in sponsorship funds		The Hollywood Historical Society organization is also involved
Town of Lauderdale-By-The-Sea	Yes	Community Center/ Commission Chamber artifacts from a shipwreck- SS Copenhagen	Yes	City Clerk's office	$0		Spoke to Lucila Lang
Lauderhill	Yes	Historical museum at the Walter M Elfers Park	Yes	Parks and Recreation Department	Not funded as of 10/01/25
Margate	Yes	There is a pinned board within City Hall with historical pictures, old map, and old pictures of Margate development	Yes	City Clerk's office	$0		There are items kept in storage with historical value. Nothing budgeted for, just lamination for what is displayed.
Miramar	Yes	In the lobby area of the Town Center. The display shows a progression of the City. Recently celebrated 70 years and the vendor used was Premier Printing.	Yes	Marketing Department	$0
Pembroke Pines	Yes	In city hall (4th floor) there is a display showing a breakdown/timeline of the city. The display is on glass.	Yes	Recreation Department	$0		A grant with Florida Humanities for $5000 was used to pay for the display. There is no budget for maintaining the displays.
Plantation	Yes	Plantation Historical Museum	No			Plantation Historical Society	It is it's own non-profit organization
Pompano Beach	Yes	In the commission chamber's lobby showing a timeline history	Yes	Cultural Affairs Department	$0		An amount has not been budgeted since there isn't an upkeep
Coconut Creek	No
Cooper City	No						Public Works has items in storage and they have an online historical museum
Dania Beach	No						They have historical properties, but not an area or facility displaying items
Town of Hillsboro Beach	No

Lauderdale Lakes	No						Mayor Samuel S. Brown Room dedicated to preserving and sharing his life's work.
Lighthouse Point	No
North Lauderdale	No
Oakland Park	No
Parkland	No						There was a historical society for years, but now they just hired a part-time historian. The part time worker is under the direction of the library. There is a time-capsule buried in front of city hall.
Town of Pembroke Park	No
Town of Southwest Ranches	No	At one point may have a glass table display, but nothing yet				Southwest Ranches Historical Society, but no longer active
Tamarac	No						Spoke to the CC office and the Assistant Director of Community Development, Maher Mansour, and they
Weston	No
Wilton Manors	No						Historical Society that tracks info PH #954-617-5889