Teacher of the Month – February 2026
Plantation High School- Dr. Saima Sanaullah

Plantation High School proudly nominates Dr. Saima Sanaullah as February 2026 Teacher of the Month.

Dr. Saima Sanaullah has been a dedicated school leader at Plantation High School since 2012, whose focus on excellence and equity drives student success and professional growth. As Department Chair and Science teacher, she uses data and collaboration to improve student outcomes. She has served as SAC Chair, overseeing compliance and approving key initiatives; as MTSS Coordinator, facilitating interventions for at-risk students; and as PBIS facilitator implementing incentive systems for positive behavior. Her leadership in science raised Biology EOC proficiency from 44% to 63%, and she supports academic growth through reviewing events and extended learning opportunities (ELOs). Dr. Sanaullah designs interactive lessons across multiple subjects, mentors teachers, and delivers professional development. She boosts school engagement by assisting with the coordination of open houses and sponsoring student groups. Dr. Sanaullah is recognized as Plantation High School 2025/2026 Teacher of the Year and is currently a finalist for Broward County Public School Teacher of the Year CALIBER Award. She is also a member of the 2025-26 Broward LEAD, and consistently demonstrates effective, student-focused leadership

Her accolades reflect not only individual achievement but also the positive transformation she inspires in others. Dr. Saima Sanaullah is an exemplary educator whose visionary leadership continues to elevate Plantation High School, making her our nominee for the City of Sunrise Teacher of the Month of February 2026.
